Dedication

J. Douglas Lepter

The 2004 Darda honors J. Douglas Lepter, professor of communication and chairperson of the Division of Communication, Language, and Literature. Known for his compassion, sense of humor, and ability to make learning enjoyable and applicable, Dr. Lepter has been an important part of the Trevecca community since 1991.

Originally from New Jersey, Professor Lepter finished his undergraduate studies at Eastern Nazarene College in 1972. While studying electrical engineering, he sensed a call to preach and teach that caused him to change his plans. He earned a master's degree in religion from ENC in 1973 and was ordained in the Church of the Nazarene in 1975. He served more than twenty years in pastoral ministry, two as a full-time evangelist. After earning a master's of theology from Asbury Theological Seminary in 1990, he completed a Ph.D. in communication from the University of Kentucky in 1996. Communication, he believed, was compatible with his dual call to preaching and teaching.

On a personal note, Dr. Lepter and his wife, Samuella, have been married for thirty-two years and have one son, John Wesley; a daughter-in-law, Pam Roden-Lepter; and three grandsons—John Wesley, Jr., Austin William, and Patrick Ryan. His hobbies include stamp and baseball card collecting, cheering for the St. Louis Cardinals, and being an ardent "Trekkie."

Dr. Lepter has made his mark at Trevecca, receiving the Conference of Chairpersons' Teaching Excellence Award in 1995, and the Excellence in Teaching Award for MHR, 1997-1998, and he is a past recipient of the Faculty Member of the Year Award. He has filled many roles and touched many lives. He continues to express the love of God to others as husband, father, grandfather, professor, pastor, colleague, and friend.

Obedience Brings Offerings

Genesis 12:1-4
The Lord said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you."

"I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you." So Abram left, as the Lord had told him.

Genesis 13:14-17
The Lord said to Abram, "Lift up your eyes from where you are and look north and south, east and west. All the land that you see I will give to you and your offspring forever. I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust, then your offspring could be counted. Go, walk through the length and breadth of the land, for I am giving it to you."

The proposition that God laid before Abram was difficult. He had to leave his country and his people and his father's household. But the promise that God offered was abundant. His family would be a blessing to the world, and he would possess the land in all directions.

The passage applies dramatically to the college situation – being at the crossroads of life. God calls all persons to greater exploits, and if we are obedient, there is greater return.

I am pleased that the Darda Staff has chosen this theme to appear in the 2004 publication. It will be lived out many, many times by the students and other constituents of Trevecca.

Be not afraid, God has called you forth.

Welcome Week...

As another summer finally brings itself to an end, new and returning students descend upon Trevecca's campus with one goal in mind: to find and make as many friends as possible. Welcome Week provided students the chance to meet, greet, and, most importantly, get acquainted.

All-Campus Praise and Worship was a time to pause and prepare for the upcoming school year, dedicating to God who we are and all we do. The Block Party was a time to relax and gear up for the start of classes. Cosmic Bowling allowed students to get a much-needed escape from the accumulating homework. Friday night was the infamous '80s Skate Night, which included everything from the Ninja Turtles to Lisa Turtle (Saved by the Bell), and a surprise appearance from Alvin and the Chipmunks.

The week wound down Saturday afternoon with a Slip-n-Slide that not even the Nashville Fire Department could refuse. The Back-to-School Bash was a time to unwind, wrapping up a week full of activities and giving momentum to the 2003-2004 school year. Welcome Week was truly "more than a feeling."

All-School Retreat

Horton Haven Christian Camp

Retreaters gathered at Horton Haven Christian Camp for the annual All-School Retreat and a chance to take a break from their hectic lives as students. Students often voiced their testimony to the leadership of the Holy Spirit within their lives. Retreaters entered into worship as "one body, one faith, one baptism and hope of our call" while the retreat revolved around the theme of gaining intimacy with God.

Former student Jason Krawitz lead the group in a time of worship. The retreat speaker was Ken Jewett, Benson Hall resident director. He challenged students to know what intimacy with God is all about. Retreaters relaxed by taking a hayride, canoeing and by playing football and Frisbee. The retreat concluded with a time of communion administered by Jeremy Pass, student body chaplain. Freshman Ben Kolozsy came back from the All-School retreat saying, "Wow! God's done some great stuff this weekend." It was a great weekend to get real.

Erin Vanzant- "The all school retreat was a great opportunity to meet new people. The speaker, Ken Jewett, was great! I really enjoyed the whole experience."

Jane Twining- "The All-School Retreat was a wonderful weekend that let me survey the beauty of God and His creation."

Joe Crosby - " I liked dodge-ball because I got to throw balls at girls without getting in trouble."

Robbie Brown - "I enjoyed relaxing. The retreat was truly a break from my busy school schedule. I would definitely go again."

Trojan Idol

The Social Life Committee successfully sponsored the first ever Trojan Idol talent competition, modeled after the popular realit show phenomenon American Idol. Harvest Hoe-Down

Students gathered in the Quad for a night of fun, games, and fellowship at the annual RHA Harvest Hoe-Down. A wide variety of activities were offered, ranging from pumpkin bowling and paintball duels to milk-chugging and cottage cheese eating contests. Apple cider and s'mores were on hand to help ward off the cold. The always entertaining redneck "weddin' chapel" was packed with a "preacher" and lots of couples eagerly waiting to get "hitched." All in all, the Harvest Hoe-Down was a knee-slappin' good time!

Hearing. . . Knowing. . . Embodying "The Call"

We were challenged to hear, to know, and to embody the call! In this challenge the Trevecca community was called to move beyond a divided life—where on one hand we love God, but on the other hand, we continue to hang on to our allegiances to the world all around us. Rather than one foot in God's kingdom and the other foot still holding on to everything else that we think could give us life, the TNU community was confronted with God's ultimate call—the call to undividedness. This call was summed up as loving the Lord with ALL of our heart, ALL of our soul, and ALL of our strength. Often in chapel, we sang the theme song for the year, "I Give You My Heart." In order not to think that we could respond to this call in our own strength, many chapels ended with this blessing: "May the God of peace himself sanctify you entirely…The one who calls you is faithful, and he will do this" (1 Thessalonians 5:23-24).

"No Regrets"

Team Uganda's primary mode of transportation was the safari bus. Pictured are Veronica Colson and her team made up of students from Trevecca, Olivet, and Southern Nazarene Universities.

Jessica Hawkins worked in Kenya and Tanzania as part of a team that planted NYI programs in local churches. She, like others, has affirmed that "no matter how small and inadequate I am. . . the entire summer was evidence of how loving, gracious, and incredibly faithful God is."

Celesta Cox helps renovate an old street car into a cafe in Frankfurt, Germany. Reflecting on her experience, she marvels that "God took me all the way to Germany to show me how much he loves me."

Lisa Barwell's team worked with children in Australia where she saw God's kingdom expand. She affirms that if you "give everything to God and your world will get bigger."

CAUSE Italia

CAUSE 2003 witnessed students becoming immersed in the life, language, and culture of Italy. Spending two weeks working with the Nazarene church in Sicily, students were forced to rely on God to break the language barrier as they engaged in prayer walking, café hopping, manual labor, and other forms of friendship evangelism. Although these efforts were not easy, it soon became evident that trusting in God's ways and timing would see lives touched for Him.

Carol Henley explains, "I learned how to look at people and see them as God sees them. I learned that we have to be patient with God's timing. . . it may take a year or five or twenty, but God is faithful when we are working for His purposes." Students had the chance to build relationships with their teammates and with the Italians they met and to witness the global church in action.

Starting Line

Starting Line is a mentoring program that serves prisoners' children between the ges of eight and eighteen. All mentors are volunteer students who go through a ong application process that includes interviews and training programs.

tarting Line's mission is to assist the University in its ministry to prisoners, ex-risoners, victims, and their families and to promote Biblical standards in the riminal justice system. Student mentors are paired together and then assigned their wn children. The mentors develop one-on-one relationships with each child by way f weekly in-person visits, phone calls, e-mails, or postcards. Student mentors make consistent commitment for at least a year. Each mentor has the responsibility of eeping in touch with the child and deciding which day of the week to spend ogether. The purpose for each Starting Line mentor is to show Jesus to the children nd allow love to overflow into the chilren's lives. Trevecca is the first university to nplement the program. Starting Line had hoped to have at least fifteen to twenty olunteers, but approximately sixty students joined the mentoring program.

nother aspect of Starting Line is the Angel Tree party at Christmas. The Trevecca ommunity adopts children to share with them a gift. More than two-hundred ildren were adopted during Angel Tree. Starting Line and Angel Tree will continue thriving University ministries.

Below: "Giving gifts to needy children at Christmas time is a great thing," says Cheryl Fraser who hands her "angel," Chalon Jones, a heartwarming gift.

King's Kids

King's Kids is a ministry to inner-city children in grades kindergarten through fifth in the Napier Community. Each Tuesday night around fifty student workers gather with approximately seventy children to present the gospel message and show them the unconditional love of Christ. King's Kids saw enormous growth and was blessed greatly by God throughout the year. The King's Kids ministry also presented a new opportunity for students to get involved by sponsoring children so they could receive a King's Kids t-shirt and a children's Bible. Together, the Trevecca Community raised more than $700 for the children. Each child is precious in the eyes of God and the children from the Napier community are no different. "As a senior this is my final year of being involved in the ministry, and I can truly say it will be one of the things I miss most about my time at Trevecca," states Christen Caudill, King's Kids director.

Chris Hill speaks a few words of comfort to a tearful child during a break from the variety of games that are played each week.

ove: Although a little shy at first, this King's Kid is introduced the group by Britt Wood. The first King's Kids of the year ought sixty-eight kids while sixty student workers showed to help. King's Kids was one the fastest growing ministries campus thanks to canvasing local neighborhoods like the apier community.

Below: Malachi Courtney and Christen Caudill lead the group in a song to start the night. Following the opening, the kids break off into age groups and spend the evening learning about Jesus through crafts, games, and Bible stories. Workers never know how many kids to expect and are excited about the growth of this ministry.

Left: Setting up for craft time is something Andy Ingram has come to enjoy while working with King's Kids.

Prison Ministry

Prison Ministry is a student-led ministry which ministers to both males and females in a prison chapel. The mission is to love the inmates with the love that Christ showed, even through metal bars. Guys and girls are split up into two teams and sent to the men's and women's penitentiaries. The women are known for the variety of songs they carry into the visitor centers. The mentoring process includes singing worship songs, preaching the Bible, and sharing testimonies. Students take turns preaching with the prison's chaplain. The prison ministry is a thriving ministry at Trevecca led by Derek Bargatze and Adam Thompson.

Right:
Adam Thompson, Chaplain Dennis, and Derek Bargatze show dedication to the inmates of the Davidson County jail. Although all three take turns preaching to inmates, they also allow the chance for any other students to lead the service.

Right:
Casey Thornton, and Jennifer Strait have learned to have open minds about the services in the women's facility. Often Thornton and Strait's plans are laid aside when the inmates come to the service with other needs or plans for the service. Thornton says, "It's a very moving experience, especially when the women in the penitentiary choose to lead the service."

Apartment Life

Beginning their junior year, students maintaining a high GPA and a good character witness are eligible to move from the dorms into the on-campus apartments– Redford and Wise for women and Shingler for men. The apartments are more spacious and are equipped with full kitchens, allowing residents a taste of independence– provided they bow to the power of the dreaded guest pass.

Above: For the first time ever, Wise Hall was outfitted with limited laundry facilities, saving students like Andrea Mays the hike to Redford Apartments.

Above: Full kitchens allow Lisa Barwell and other students to cook their own meals and to enjoy an alternative to cafeteria food.

Below: Stephen Henry tries in vain to hear the phone over his roommates, the stereo, and their original Nintendo, where they have almost conquered Super Mario Brothers.

Left: Revealing a hidden musical bent, Billy Byler is teaching himself to play the guitar in his spare time.

J. Moore

With Trevecca being in the heart of "Music City USA," it is easy to see why music has such an influence on the campus. Students regularly attend shows at local music venues or are the first to purchase newly-released albums. The campus even boasts its own share of student bands that play across the region.

Big Move

On Saturday, August 23, 2003, car after car entered the campus loaded with college essentials and students ready to begin college. The big move from living at home to living in a college dorm is one of the most significant transitions in a young person's life. "I was excited to move to campus, but I definitely felt the pain of leaving my family behind," said freshman Shauna Walls. Year after year, the parents of freshmen have aided their "kids" during this change. The big move is an exciting time for all who experience it.

Hangin' Out

Whether in a coffee shop off Broadway or simply in a dorm lobby, freshmen can be spotted hanging out all over Nashville. The location does not matter as long as the environment is a relaxing one and friends are present. A much-needed escape from the daily grind is something all college students need on a regular basis, especially freshmen.

How did you choose your major?

I've always loved music. I participated n marching band and choir during high school. Before coming to Trevecca, I prayed to God about what major to choose. I heard that Trevecca had a eally good Music Business Program, so I decided to use the gift that God ave me and major in music business."

Women's Soccer

Entering their fourth year of existence, the Lady Trojans hoped that the rebuilding process would not be a difficult one. They brought in seven new players, including high school standouts Tracey Hoover and Loni Osigueda. Through the leadership of seniors Sarah Lawrence, Amanda Thompson, Karen Francis, and Carolyn Pratt, the team quickly regained the chemistry of previous years as it won its first game of the season. Throughout the year the Lady Trojans enjoyed many positive moments along with a few negative times when the team endured a critical mid-season five-game losing streak. The commitment shown by the players should encourage fans because the future of Lady Trojan soccer looks bright under the direction of coaches Mark Champion and Stan Herod.

B. Thorup

Above: Tracey Hoover settles down the ball in an attempt to push the Lady Trojans up the field. Hoover manged to score seven goals despite being injured for part of the season.

B. Thorup

Right: The Lady Trojans prepare themselves as they chant "We Ready." This pre-game ritual "pumped" the women up for their game against rival conference team Freed-Hardeman on September 20. They won the game by a score of 3-2.

"As roommates our close friendship off the field helps us know each other's style of play," says Collins. As a result of this close friendship and strong determination, Pratt was given the Coaches Award and Collins received the Most Valuable Player Award. Pratt graduated with Academic All-American honors.

Left: Playing aggressively, senior Amanda Thompson fights to regain possession of the ball. As one of the few players who have represented Trevecca's soccer program for four years, Thompson graduated with Academic All-American honors.

Men's Soccer

The Trojan men's soccer team was one that will set the standard for years to come. The squad was the best in the school's history, finishing its season with a 10 wins, 9 losses, and 2 ties record. The team showed character this season by overcoming key injuries to starters Vinnie Bhashkar, Jeremy Watson, and Gonzalo Elorza early in the season. Co-captains Esteban Gonzalez, Mariano Monzu, and Jonathon Duranceau guided the team through a rocky start and helped make a potentially rough season into a very successful one. With a TranSouth record of 4 wins, 2 losses and 1 tie, the team finished high in the rankings, earning bids to the TranSouth Tournament and the NAIA Regional Tournament. The team fell to Cumberland University in a late tournament game to end its season.

Women's Volleyball

The Trojan Women's Volleyball team of 2003 was one for the record books. The women started the season with 11 wins and 0 losses. That feat, however, was overshadowed by the thirty-four wins and eight losses that set a Trevecca volleyball record for a single season. The eight losses were the fewest ever. Overall, the team had an incredible season because of the leadership of the five seniors on the team. Crissie Cunha and Katie Carter, both seniors, along with junior Jodi Reimer were named to the TranSouth Conference first team. The team competed in the NAIA Region XI Tournament for the fourth year in a row; there the team won its first match before losing to Georgetown University in the second round. "This season was filled with many memorable moments. It was a season I will never forget," says head coach Scott Jones.

Women's Basketball

The Lady Trojan basketball team continued their story of greatness in 2004. For the fifth year in a row, the team won a spot in the NAIA national tournament. The women's program completed its eighth season under coach Julie van Beek, and has seen extensive post-season play under her watch. Seniors Lindsay Fly, Audrey Leatherman, and Leslie Golden all put their names in the Trevecca record book this year. Fly is the all-time leading rebounder and is second on the scoring chart. Leatherman has more steals than anyone in Trevecca history, and she, along with Golden, moved into the top-ten all-time leading scorers in the 2003-2004 season. The women had a record of 18 wins and 12 losses.

Men's Basketball

The Trojan men's basketball team faced a tough year of rebuilding after the loss of key seniors from the previous year. Coach Sam Harris recruited a solid freshman class as well as some transfer students that were able to contribute during the season. The young team showed their true grit throughout the season as they hung close in many games and kept a positive attitude in spite of some close losses. The season was a winning one as the team fought hard for a 17 wins 14 losses record. Seniors David Stark and Curtis Lewis both had terrific seasons. The team pulled out a close win over Freed-Hardeman to begin TranSouth Tournament. The victory helped to show the young team that they were capable of pulling out a victory in a close, important game.

Softball

The women of the Trojan softball team took several huge strides forward in 2004. Led by seniors Meredith Watkins, Courtney Dickens, and Lisa Hethorn, the team finished the season with a record of 29 wins and 17 losses. The team made its second appearance in school history at the TranSouth Regional Tournament in Jackson, TN. Roné Phelps, Jamie Toome, Charlie Duff, and Ashley McCool earned all-conference honors. Duff also earned the Pitcher of the Year Award with a .55 ERA for the season. McCool was the TranSouth Conference Newcomer of the Year. The Lady Trojan Softball team's future looks bright because of several up-and-coming underclassmen.

Baseball

The 2004 baseball team had an incredible season. The year was led by numerous seniors that have been consistent players throughout their careers on the Trevecca diamond. Lead by Coach Jeff Forehand, named TranSouth Coach of the Year, the team excelled and reached new heights that have surpassed the achievements of previous teams. The 2004 team placed four Trojans on the first team all-conference and another four on the second team. One of the team's greatest achievements was being ranked #4 in the NAIA Top 25 Poll. The baseball team had never been ranked this high before and are very proud of their achievement. The team also went to the TranSouth Conference Tournament where it had a couple of tough losses accompanied by a strong win. This season's team had its best year ever and represented Trevecca well in the NAIA.

The RHA-sponsored Western Barbecue took the place of the annual luau. It also gave Johnson Hall RD Jen Wyatt and junior Dan Mistak the opportunity to show off their square dancing technique.

Assistant Dean of Students for Residential Life, Ronda Lilienthal, chats on the phone during a busy day in the office.

The mission of the Resident Housing Association (RHA) is "to broaden the educational opportunities of residence hall students, to enrich the lives of students through spiritual, educational, and social programs, and to encourage interaction and communication between al residential areas." RHA is led by Rhonda Lilenthal and consists of individual councils from each dorm. Throughout the year, RHA plans various activities and seminars to improve the well-being of the student both socially and academically. The Western Barbecue, the Benson Hall sponsored Harvest Hoedown, the Nashville Predators Hockey Night, and the All-School Ice Skate Night are annual events hosted by the Resident Housing Association.

WNAZ "The New Music Revolution"

Nashville's Christian radio station owned by Trevecca recieved a fresh format. Thanks to sophomore new-comer Lee Kebler, the radio station began a new and "in-your-face" image change with the help of a new slogan – "the all new NAZ." The radio station also began hosting outreach concerts and other Christian events around the city of Nashville. Casey Cook and Seth Routzahn were also WNAZ personalities.

The radio station is a training tool for communication majors who have an interest in radio. David Deese completed his twenty-fifth year with WNAZ.

Editor-in-chief of TrevEchoes Eric Johnson, brought a fresh look to the school's student newspaper. Johnson enlisted a completely new staff: Nicole Hart, assistant editor and "Opinion" editor; Eric Vinson, editor of "Campus Life;" Josh Shope, editor of "Around Town;" and Kelsey Shockey, editor of "Sports." The newspaper grew not only in the number of staff members, but also in size, from eight pages to twelve. Editor Emeritus Billy Byler continued to write the "Back Page."

The September 17, 2003, issue of TrevEchoes features a story about Trevecca students and their love for Krispy Kremes.

A new and popular addition to the TrevEchoes newspaper is the "Around Town" section edited by Josh Shope.

Kelsey Shockey edited the Sports Section. The women's soccer and volleyball teams are featured in an early issue.

LEAD

LEAD focused on building relationships and emphasizing and encouraging teamwork in all aspects of personal and professional life. The year-long series of seminars started off with a session on "The Ten Commandments of Human Relations" and continued with sessions like "Conflict Resolution," "Effective Team Building," and "Developing Relationships in the Corporate World." Many of the speakers were on-campus professors and administrators with a passion for leadership, while several insightful speakers were professionals from outside of the Trevecca community. All of the seminars encouraged students to look at their own leadership styles with a focus on improving them for use in whatever professional field they choose to enter.

Dramatic Arts

Hours of rehearsals paid off when the theater department wowed the campus with their eclectic season. The year was packed full of magical mahem, intellectual absurdism, and emotional drama. Audiences were offered a plethora of genres from Rosencrantz and Guidenstern are Dead to Cinderella and The Imaginary Invalid. The audiences loved Cinderella. This Homecoming musical was magical, to say the least. Kids and adults raved about the drama department's accurate portrayal of the classic fairytale. Jeff Frame continued his part as a director and major professor in the Department of Dramatic Arts.

Public Relations Groups

Trevecca's public relations groups exist to minister to churches on the southeast region and to aid in representing the school to potential students. Major changes occurred within the public relations groups when New Direction and the Trevedores were retired, giving way to two new mixed ensembles, christened Adoration and EverPraise. Both groups received high praise from all who saw them perform.

"But as for you, continue in what you have learned and have become convinced of, because you know those from whom you learned it, and how from infancy you have known the holy scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus."

2 Timothy 3: 14-15

Anna,
How very proud we are of you, and what a blessing you are to your family.
Congratulations!

We love you,

David, Dana, and Daryl Winsinger

David, Dana, and Daryl – our precious and wonderful gifts from the Lord

Every morning we bring you before our heavenly Father with the prayer that you will finish well the course that you have begun. We pray that you will always strive to find God's plan for your lives and follow it (Proverbs 3:5-6).

The accomplishments that you have achieved are thrilling to us and make us proud.

We love you all,
Dad and Mom

"The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you; the Lord turn his face toward you and give you peace."

Justin Underwood

Justin,
It hardly seems possible that four years ago you moved to Trevecca. The time has flown by, and God has opened your eyes to so many new things and put a love and desire in your heart. We are so proud of you. Continue to let Him guide you in all you do. He has great plans for you.
Jeremiah 29:11

Love, Mom and Dad

Mandie Callis

Mandie,
Your perserverance is rewarded with both a sense of accomplishment and the opportunity to pursue your goals with confidence. We are proud of you and anticipate the doors God opens for you in the future.
We love you,
Mom, Dad, Kevin, and Sarah

Brooke White

Brooke,
You have done so much! Your life shines Jesus, and your spirit is precious. You are the dearest to me. I am so proud of you. You have been one of my greatful joys. What an honor to be your mother. I love you! Mom

From Doreen Toby to Teddy Ruxpin, from JCCA to TNU, from your parent's pride and joy to Mrs. Thrasher's, you will always be daddy's little girl. I love you. Congrats! Dad

To our son,
You are the one who kept our house from being neat and clean and stayed out late with all your friends. Now you're the one we thank God for.

You've grown to be a man. We thank God you have given your life to him.

You are everything these parents dreamed their son could be.

We're glad to say you belong to us.

We love you,
Mama and Daddy

Beth Bleadingheiser

May the Lord continue to guide you as you seek His will for your life in youth ministry. May your year in Italy with NIVS be a very fruitful time.
We are proud of you!

Hannah Reynard

Congratulations, "Hanky!"
We love you and know that God has an awesome plan for your life. You have overcome many changes and challenges. You will always be great in all that you do because God's grace is still greater.

Love, Your Family

Katherine Hancock

You have blessed our family's life as a delightful daughter! Since you began talking, you have brought joy to everyone. We cherish you now and always. You're a person!

The Trevecca Nazarene University Yearbook

Darda

Colophon

The 2004 Darda, volume 80, was created by the Darda staff at Trevccca Nazarene University and printed by Herff Jones Publishing Co. in Montgomery, Alabama. The publishing representative was Mary Harris. Individual student portraits were taken by J. Chistopher Photography, Inc. Athletics photography was provided by Bill Thorup, Xpress Studios.

Typography
All body copy is 11-point Garamond. All captions are 9-point Tahoma. Giligan Extrabold, Griffon Extrabold, BaseNine, and KaffeeWide are used in headlines.

Cover
The cover is a four-color lithograph designed by the Darda staff. The photographer is unknown.

Photography
All staff photographs were taken using a 5.0 megapixel Sony DSC-F717 digital camera and a Cannon EOS RebelX.

Production
The 2004 Darda was produced on Dell and Howard personal computers using Adobe PageMaker 7.0, Adobe Photoshop 7.0, and HJ ImageIn. The press-run was six-hundred and fifty-three books. Inquiries can be sent to darda@trevecca.edu. Copyright © 2004,the Darda staff and Trevecca Nazarene University. All rights reserved.
